Excellent Dining Cars St. Louis to New Fork every day on Knickerbocker Special.

Mr. and Mrs. George Walton Flersheim entertained on Friday night at the Mercantile Club, in celebration of their twentieth wedding anniversary. About eighty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Flersheim were invited to play cards and participate in the pleasant event, and there were few regrets. The game occupied two hours, cards being played in the large dining-room at small flower-decked tables. Lunch was served during the evening, with a supper of several courses at midnight. When the coffee came some informal toasting and speeches from old and valued friends of the host and hostews added spice to the evening. Mr. O. A. Field said a few pleasant things, followed by Frank Wyman, who was in happy vein and told an appropriate story or two with great success. The card scores resulted in the awarding of handsome hand-painted china prizes to. Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. George Teamtale and Mrs. Ed Rae, to Messra. George Darkley, Clarence Gill and A. B. Chapman.

Mrs. Fiersheim received her guessis in a
